

FEEC Short-term Mission Value Statement

My Commitment

We live in a world that emphasizes rights. As a matter of fact, the rights of individuals are constitutional in most of the countries and people take pride in their rights. However, as we see the demand for individual rights increases, we also see the moral standard of our society deteriorates. Our Lord Jesus Christ laid down His rights, the heavens and all His glory to become a man to serve, not to be served (Phil. 2:5-11; Mark 10:45).

We ask you to consider laying down your rights on this short-term project, not to lay them down for better or for worse, but to entrust them to the Lord or transfer the responsibility of them to a place of safekeeping. These rights may seem reasonable but can cause dissension in a short-term project. Therefore, we ask you to take time to search your heart and surrender your rights to the Lord.

I give up my right to the following:

1. Having familiar food
2. Making own decisions
priority
3. Having three meals
4. Modern conveniences
5. Dressing fashionably
6. Control of others
7. Taking up offense
8. Being heard
9. Being always right
10. Control of my own affairs
11. Being understood
12. Seeing immediate results
13. Having pleasant circumstances
14. Control of circumstances
15. Being successful

I entrust to God the following (based on Romans 12:1):

1. My likes and dislikes of different kinds of food
2. His sovereign hand on my life - making prayers as my 1st
3. He supplies all my needs
4. My strength and endurance
5. To be one among the local people
6. His workmanship in me to see others better than myself
7. He is my defense
8. Speak truth in love
9. Submit to God and each other
10. My need for His Spirit's control
11. My humility
12. His purposes and fruit in His timing
13. The privilege of suffering for His sake
14. Trust Him and seek His wisdom
15. My security in His loving care
